

Services for Conference Delegates and Representatives of NGOs

Library of the United Nations Office at Geneva

Access

The Library is open to conference delegates and representatives of non-governmental organizations (NGOs) attending meetings in the Palais des Nations. A valid UN badge delivered by the Security and Safety Section is required.

Registration

Upon registration at the Loans desk on the 1st floor of the Library, you can request materials for consultation. Books will then be made available for consultation in one of the reading rooms. The Library material cannot be brought outside of the Library.

Reading rooms

The Library offers several reading rooms with working spaces. Conference delegates and representatives of NGOs can request an assigned desk number, where their borrowed material will be kept.

Cyberspaces

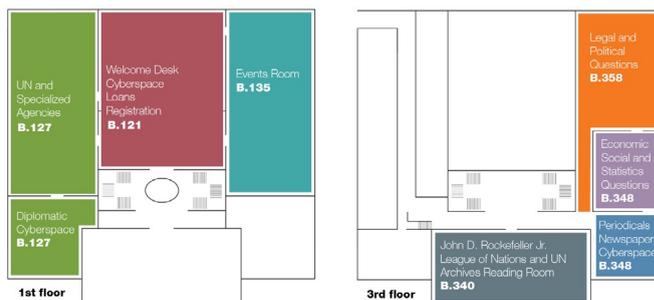

The Library offers several cyberspaces with computers on the 1st and the 3rd floors, open from 8:30 am to 5:30 pm. These computers are equipped to provide access to the Internet, office programs and the Library catalogues and electronic collections. In addition you will find printers, photocopiers and scanners on site.

Wi-Fi

The Wi-Fi network (named "UNOG Public-WiFi") from your mobile device available in the Library reading rooms opens access to Library electronic collections.

Electronic collections

The Library provides access to nearly 70'000 e-journals and more than 60 databases on site, or via our Wi-Fi network. Visit our e-resources page: <http://www.unog.ch/library-eresources>

Print collections

The Library maintains a rich collection of books and serials on the working areas of the United Nations and an exhaustive collection of UN documentation in all official languages since 1946. Consult our catalogues: <http://librarycat.unog.ch>
