

Services for UN Staff

Library of the United Nations Office at Geneva

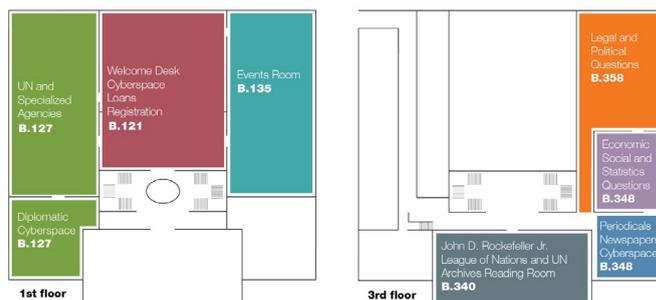

Research assistance

Do not hesitate to ask a librarian to get assistance in your research filling in our form on our website: <http://www.unog.ch/library>. You can also visit us in the reading rooms where we'll help you find the information you are seeking.

Registration

As a current UN staff member, you can register for a UNOG Library user account, which allows you to borrow material. Visit us at the Loans desk, 1st floor, building B, to open your account, or register at: <http://www.unog.ch/library>

Training

We offer individual coaching sessions and group trainings upon demand, tailored to meet your specific information needs. Contact us at: library@unog.ch

Electronic collections

The Library provides access to nearly 70'000 e-journals and more than 60 databases. Most of these are accessible directly from your office workstation or on your mobile device via UNOG's Wi-Fi network: <http://libraryresources.unog.ch/eres>

Remote access to e-collections

Staff members with assigned offices in the Palais des Nations and UNHCR staff members who travel on mission or telecommute can contact us to request access to our e-resources collections from anywhere in the world. Contact us at: library@unog.ch

Print collections

The Library maintains a rich collection of books and serials on the working areas of the United Nations and an exhaustive collection of UN documentation in all official languages since 1946. Consult our catalogues: <http://librarycat.unog.ch>

Online loan requests

Upon registration you will receive login details to access your account and place loan requests in our online catalogues <http://librarycat.unog.ch>. Requested materials will be sent directly to your office via internal mail and you can return them through internal mail, as well.

Interlibrary loan

If the material you need is not available in our collections, we may be able to borrow a copy for you from another library in our network. Send your request to: library@unog.ch

Suggestions

We welcome your suggestions for acquisitions of material. Contact us by filling in our form on our website: <http://www.unog.ch/library>

Reading rooms and cyberspaces

Many UN Staff members and interns find the workspaces in the Library's reading rooms to be conducive to focused research and writing. On-site facilities include printers, photocopiers, scanners, and public computers. If you prefer to use your own device, UNOG's Wi-Fi network signal is strong in all reading rooms of the Library.
