General Remarks concerning the implementation of the Convention and its annexed Protocols

The Vatican City State - Holy See has never used, stockpiled or produced any sort of conventional weapons which may be deemed to be excessively injurious or to have indiscriminate effects which are covered by the Convention and its five annexed Protocols.

There are no such conventional weapons placed on the territory of Vatican City State.

The provisions of the CCW as well as the provisions of its five annexed Protocols, have been completely implemented.

The Holy See supports and promotes all activities focusing on a total world-wide elimination of conventional weapons which may be deemed to be excessively injurious or to have indiscriminate effects which are covered by the Convention and its five annexed Protocols. The Holy See is undertaking continual efforts to help victims suffering the terrible consequences caused by such weapons.
