Additional information on measures taken on international technical cooperation and assistance is contained in the National Report provided pursuant to paragraph 2(b) of Article 10 of Protocol V for the year:

International technical co-operation, including relevant experiences in seeking or providing technical assistance and cooperation:

Norway is currently funding mine action in 20 countries, and will continue to give priority to countries that demonstrate strong national ownership and progress towards completion. We are strong believers in focusing on country-level efforts in order to accelerate progress, both at policy level and at technical level to identify and address remaining challenges. In its capacity as co-coordinator for CCM clearance and risk reduction education (art. 4) in 2016-2017, Norway has been able to contribute to such efforts by initiating workshops with participation of all stakeholders at country level.

International technical assistance:

Norway provided USD 40 million for global mine action in 2017.
