Current status of Article 4 implementation according to the information submitted by States in their national annual reports

Countries which appear to be implementing Article 4

Australia, Belgium, Canada, Czech Republic, France, Germany, Ireland, Italy, Lithuania, New Zealand, Netherlands, Norway, Pakistan, Romania, Russian Federation, Slovakia, Sweden, United Arab Emirates, United States of America

Countries which have reported on ERW contamination in their own territories

Bosnia and Herzegovina, Croatia, Georgia, Senegal, Saudi Arabia, Tunisia, Ukraine

Countries which have reported on recording explosive ordnance use in training exercises only

Austria, Brazil

Countries on which there is insufficient information

Belarus, Bulgaria, China, Cyprus, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, Guatemala, Hungary, India, Latvia, Luxembourg, Malta, Portugal, Qatar, Republic of Korea, Republic of Moldova, Slovenia, Spain, Switzerland

Countries on which there is no information

Albania, Cameroon, Chile, Costa Rica, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, El Salvador, Gabon, Guinea Bissau, Honduras, Iceland, Jamaica, Liberia, Madagascar, Mali, Nicaragua, Panama, Paraguay, Peru, Poland, Sierra Leone, St, Vincent and the Grenadines, Tajikistan, The former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, Uruguay

*Two countries which have not implemented Article 4 but do not use explosive ordnance: Holy See and Liechtenstein

*Three new High Contracting Parties: Argentina, Lao People’s Democratic Republic and South Africa