MINE CLEARANCE PROGRAMMES:

UK mine action work in developing countries over 2010-13 has: resulted in the removal of over 70,000 landmines and ERW; released over 10,000 hectares of contaminated or suspected hazardous land so that people can return to their everyday lives; and increased the awareness of hundreds of thousands of people through mine risk education. The UK committed £41m to this three-year effort.

The third phase of demining/land release operations in the Falkland Islands under the Anti-Personnel Mine Ban Treaty was completed in 2013. This focused on clearing minefields and suspect hazardous areas that were better demarcated during earlier land release operations. As a result, 5 further minefields, selected in consultation with the Falkland Islands Government, were cleared.

REHABILITATION PROGRAMMES:

The UK runs health and social development programmes with targeted elements for disabled people including those injured by landmines.
