On the occasion of the UN Climate Summit 2014, and with the support of the Republic and State of Geneva, Ciné ONU is pleased to invite you to a screening of “Snowpiercer.” The film, not recommended for children under 16, will be presented in English, with French subtitles.

The film will be followed by a debate on climate change.

 Introductory remarks:
 Michael Møller
 Acting Director-General,
 United Nations Office at Geneva

 Philippe Burrin
 Director, Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies

 Special guest:
 François Longchamp
 President of the State Council,
 Canton of Geneva

 Debate on climate change:
 Michael Zammit Cutajar
 former Executive Secretary,
 United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change

 Urs Luterbacher
 Honorary Professor of Political Sciences,
 Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies

 Ciné ONU Geneva consists of bi-monthly film screenings followed by expert-led debates, aimed at raising awareness of priorities on the international agenda among local audiences, and strengthening the profile of International Geneva. For more information:

cineONU@unog.ch

Entry is free but seating is on a first come first served basis.

Follow UN Geneva and the Graduate Institute Geneva on social media:

UNGeneva
@UNGeneva

graduateinstitute
@iheid

unisgeneva
UNinformationGeneva

graduateinstitute

A collaboration between the United Nations Information Service and the Graduate Institute Geneva