Information to the armed forces, including the extent to which the CCW and its Protocols are part of military manuals and the training curriculum of its armed forces:

System of military preparation in the Czech Republic consists of career training of an individual, regular daily training of individuals or units and ad-hoc training, be it specialised courses for individuals or pre-deployment training of particular units. IHL is included in the current general training programs. Furthermore, a special IHL training manual for instructors has been issued in January 2008 and in May 2008 a specialized one week course dedicated to IHL issues has been accomplished, apart from ordinary course structure.

In January 2009 a specialized intranet web page concerning IHL issues has been introduced. Such method of dissemination of IHL information assures that anyone be it civilian or soldier may acquire basic information anytime.

Information to the civilian population, including information on any programs, courses or documentation to disseminate the CCW to non-military audiences:

The Convention and its Protocols I-IV have been promulgated in Czech official journal “Collection of International Treaties” under no. 21/1999 of the Coll. Amended article I together with Protocol V were after its entry into force for the Czech Republic promulgated under no. 115/2006 of the Coll.
