On 29 May 2008, Germany has unilaterally renounced the use of all types of cluster munitions and intends to finalize the destruction of national cluster munitions stocks, depending on industrial and budgetary aspects preferably until 2015.

Germany became a state party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions on 1 August 2010.

At the same time, Germany attaches great importance to the UN-Process on cluster munitions and actively participates in the CCW negotiations for a proposal to address urgently the humanitarian impact of cluster munitions in the UN-context.
