Switzerland overall expenditure in the field of humanitarian demining amounts approximately to 16 million Swiss francs per year. These efforts also include ERW-projects, victim assistance and contributions to the Geneva International Centre for Humanitarian Demining (GICHD).

In 2009, Switzerland spent directly about 6.9 million Swiss francs on projects in humanitarian demining in 13 countries. It spent more than 2.85 million Swiss francs on victim assistance and socio-economic reintegration. Furthermore, Switzerland spent more than 2.95 million Swiss francs on projects in some of Africa's, Asia's and Europe's most affected countries. 1.05 million Swiss francs have been spent for the assignment of personnel and about 25.000 Swiss francs for equipment to mine and UXO/ERW clearance programs carried out by UN agencies or International Non-Governmental Organisations.

The Swiss contribution furthermore includes the funding of the GICHD with a total amount of 8.83 million Swiss francs in 2009. The financing primarily supported the running of the centre, the development of the information management system (IMSMA) and its continued distribution, as well as the development and implementation of international mine action standards and their translation into national standards.
