FORM D: Technical cooperation and assistance

Paragraph 5 of the Decision on Compliance:

“The High Contracting Parties will provide information [...] on:

(d) Measures taken on technical co-operation and assistance;”

High Contracting Party: New Zealand

Reporting period: from 01/01/2012 to 31/12/2012

Additional information:
- Additional information of measures taken on international technical information exchange, on international cooperation on mine clearance, and on technical cooperation and assistance is contained in the National Annual Report provided in accordance with paragraph 4(e) of Article 13 of Amended Protocol II for the year: 2012
- Additional information on measures taken on international technical cooperation and assistance is contained in the National Report provided pursuant to paragraph 2 (b) of Article 10 of Protocol V for the year: 2012

International technical co-operation, including relevant experiences in seeking or providing technical assistance and cooperation:

UNMAS

The New Zealand Aid Programme provides untagged core funding to UNMAS (UN Mine Action Service) of NZ$1 million annually to support the organisation's work in removing and destroying mines, explosive remnants of war and stockpiles, risk education and advocacy. New Zealand funding also supports UNMAS activities concerning medical assistance and rehabilitation of those affected by mines.

International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC)

The New Zealand Aid Programme provides NZ$2.5 million each year in untagged core funding to support ICRC’s work, including physical rehabilitation and preventative unexploded ordnance action programmes which focus on risk reduction, education and advocacy work. Those programmes aim to reduce the human cost of mines and explosive remnants of war.

Other international/UN agencies

The New Zealand Aid Programme also prioritises core funding to other UN agencies such as UNICEF, UNDP, UNHCR, OCHA, OHCHR and WFP, all of which undertake unexploded ordnance clearance activities as part of their work. Funding is also directed to the World Bank, which helps address the long-term consequences of mines and unexploded ordnance on economic and social development.

Cambodia

The New Zealand Aid Programme is providing US$1 million to fund a project, which runs from 2012 to 2014, on landmine and unexploded ordnance clearance in Cambodia.

Egypt
Following earlier funding to the UNDP/Egyptian Government mine and unexploded ordnance clearance action programme, the New Zealand Aid Programme has contributed NZ$600,000 for a UNDP project to develop agriculture in previously mined land in Egypt. The project will runs through 2013.

Mozambique

In 2012 New Zealand provided US$100,000 to assist the completion of landmine clearance in the Dondo district of Sofala province.

Syria

New Zealand contributed NZ$1 million to the ICRC for operations in Syria including medical assistance to weapon-wounded people and NZ$500,000 towards ICRC operations in Lebanon which include assistance to those injured in the Syria conflict.

West Bank

Since November 2011, New Zealand has released NZ$2.4 million of the NZ$2.8 million committed to the UNMAS West Bank De-Mining Programme. The programme will also assist with the development of a Palestinian Action Centre (PMAC) capable of managing all aspects of mine action within the West Bank.

oPt

Funding of NZ$175,000 was committed to the Office of the Quartet for the employment of a facilitation and logistical adviser for humanitarian access into the oPt, including access for clearance agencies and supplies.
