Outlook on upcoming activities in support of the UNSGM

Dr. Stefan Kloth
Robert Koch Institute, GGBS
MSP Side Event, 6 December 2018
Upcoming activities in support of the UNSGM

i. HEAT-Training for rostered experts 2019

ii. E-learning module on Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) 2019/20

iii. Capstone Exercise 2020
Previous activities in support of the UNSGM

- Workshop on further evaluation of the functional subunit approach – January 2014

- Full-Scale Exercise – November 2014
  - 10 days, 57 experts from 20 countries/5 IOs
  - Aimed to establish whether and which functional subunits are able to optimize and facilitate investigations in the case of an alleged use of biological weapons.
Upcoming activities in support of the UNSGM

i. HEAT-Training for rostered experts

- Hazardous Environment Awareness Training, September 2019
- To prepare experts for potential hostile and dangerous situations
- 20 experts, 5 days
- In collaboration with German Federal Office of Civil Protection and Disaster Assistance on their training facilities
Upcoming activities in support of the UNSGM

ii. E-learning module on Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) 2019/20

- Will be handed over to UNODA for further trainings or in preparation of a mission
Upcoming activities in support of the UNSGM

iii. Capstone Exercise

- Joint Swedish-German activity, autumn 2020
- FOI - Swedish Defence Research Agency & Robert Koch Institute
- 10 days, 20 experts, Berlin
Upcoming activities in support of the UNSGM

iii. Capstone Exercise

- Full scale exercise from activation of the mechanism to report writing; Including:
  - Pre-deployment, Host country meeting
  - Interviewing, sampling, packaging (incl. CoC) etc.
  - Using radio equipment
  - Involving expert consultants, UNDSS, rostered labs
  - Media reporting, documentation
  - Comprehensive external evaluation
Thank you!

UNSGM-Training@rki.de

KlothS@rki.de