Steps taken to implement the provisions of Article 7 and Article 8:

Since 1999, Estonia has annually contributed to the United Nations Voluntary Trust Fund for Assistance in Mine Clearance. Estonia is determined to give ongoing support for humanitarian demining activities and mine action.

Humanitarian demining is a priority area in the Government's new strategy for Estonia's development cooperation and humanitarian assistance (2016-2020). Estonia has increased contributions over the past few years and continue to do so. This includes financial support to the United Nations Mine Action Service (UNMAS), as well as to clean-up of various explosive remnants of war and mine-clearance activities under several bilateral and international humanitarian projects.

In 2016, Estonian Government has doubled its annual contribution to the UN Voluntary Trust Fund for Assistance in Mine Action for the mine action activities in Iraq (to 40 000 USD).

In 2017 Estonia made a contribution (20 000 USD) to support UNMAS efforts in Syria.

Estonia has a six-member infantry training team and a senior officer in a strategic advisory team in Iraq who also carry out Counter-Improvised Explosive Devices – C-IED training.

Since 2015, personnel of EOD unit of Estonian Defence Forces has been participating in demining efforts in Afghanistan.

2016-2017 Estonian project was launched to support the establishment of humanitarian demining training programme Ukrainian LVIV State University of Life Security. The main goal of the project, was to support establishment of the training system in the field of humanitarian demining in Ukraine. During the project, methodology of the explosive ordnance disposal (EOD) officers training in Ukraine and their training curricula was developed. Ukraine students and instructors receive two trainings in Estonia, and the whole concept of EOD training in Lvov State University of Security Sciences (LRTU) was elaborated. Special attention was turned to use of the International Mine Association Standards (IMAS) in the EOD practice in Ukraine. As an outcome, the EOD training department of LRTU start functioning in full scale. Estonia supports the Ukrainian Emergency Situations Service in. The final fund of project was 76 000 EUR.

2017 Estonian Rescue Board EOD Center donated 3 special busses for humanitarian deminers in Ukrainian Emergency Situations Service. Total price of donation was 21 200 EUR.

Estonia has been active in providing assistance to and building up Georgia's capacity in the spirit of the Convention on Certain Conventional Weapons. From 2007 – 2009, Estonia was one of the lead nations of NATO/PfP Georgia II Trust Fund for the demilitarization of rockets and missiles in Georgia. The project comprised the demilitarisation of S-8 Air to Surface unguided missiles, and Alazan and Kristall anti-hail rockets. Estonia contributed EUR 30,000 to the project.

From 2009-2013, Estonia was among the lead nations for NATO/PfP Trust Fund project on ERW including anti-personnel land mines' clearance and medical rehabilitation support to Georgia (NATO/PfP Georgia III Trust Fund). The objectives of the project were the development and enhancement of Georgia's Explosive Ordnance Disposal (EOD) capacity, through the provision of specialist EOD equipment and training to the Georgian Armed Forces and the provision of the establishment of a physical rehabilitation centre at the Military Hospital in Gori. Estonia's contribution to the Trust Fund was EUR 136,667.

In 2013, a continual project was launched to the previous NATO/PfP Trust Funds. The objective of the NATO/PfP Trust Fund project is EOD clearance at the former SKRA ammunition depot and further development training to the previously trained EOD Company. Estonia's contribution to the Trust Fund was EUR 100,000.
