\(^1\) Note on using the cover page:

1. The cover page could be used as a complement to submitting detailed forms adopted at the Meetings of the State Parties to facilitate the submission of the information to be provided on some of the forms in an annual report, if the same as in past reports. That is, when using the cover page, only forms which there is no information would need to be submitted.

2. The cover page could be used as a substitute for submitting detailed forms adopted at the Meetings of the State Parties only if all the information to be provided in an annual report is the same as in past reports.

3. If an indication is made on the cover sheet that the information to be provided in question for a particular item would not be submitted in relation to a previous year's form, the data of submission of the previous form should be clearly indicated.

4. The cover page may be used for subsequent annual reports and is not to be used for the initial Article 7 report submission.
