Building Peace in a Turbulent World
5-9 November 2018

Geneva Peace Week 2018 will focus on the theme of Building Peace in a Turbulent World with more than 60 events over 5 days.

Join us for an exciting week that will explore peaceful solutions for the growing risk of violent conflict in its many forms.

Geneva Peace Week underlines that each and every person, actor and institution has a role to play in building peace and resolving conflict, and brings together voices from a diversity of contexts and backgrounds.
