REPORT OF THE PREPARATORY COMMITTEE FOR THE THIRD REVIEW CONFERENCE OF THE PARTIES TO THE CONVENTION ON THE PROHIBITION OF THE DEVELOPMENT, PRODUCTION AND STOCKPILING OF BACTERIOLOGICAL (BIOLOGICAL) AND TOXIN WEAPONS AND ON THEIR DESTRUCTION

I. TERMS OF REFERENCE AND ORGANIZATION OF THE COMMITTEE'S WORK

1. The Final Declaration of the Second Review Conference of the Parties to the Convention on the Prohibition of the Development, Production and Stockpiling of Bacteriological (Biological) and Toxin Weapons and on their Destruction, in the section dealing with the review of Article XII of the Convention, contained the following decision:

"The Conference decides that the Third Review Conference shall be held in Geneva at the request of a majority of States Parties not later than 1991". 1/

2. By resolution 45/57 B, adopted by consensus in December 1990 the General Assembly, inter alia, noted that, at the request of the States Parties, a Third Review Conference of the Parties to the Convention would be held in Geneva in 1991, and that, following appropriate consultations, a preparatory committee open to all parties to the Convention had been formed and that the Committee would meet in Geneva from 8 to 12 April 1991.

3. The Preparatory Committee held one session at Geneva from 8 to 12 April 1991. Following the opening of the session on 8 April by the Representative of the Secretary-General of the United Nations, consultations were carried out among delegations and groups of delegations and the following understanding was reached:

"After intensive consultations carried out among delegations and groups of delegations regarding elections of officers for the Biological Weapons Convention Preparatory Committee and the Third Review Conference of the Parties to the Convention, the following conclusions and understandings were reached:

GE.91-60640/3097B
1. In keeping with the accepted principle of rotation each group of States has the equal right to fill the posts of the President and other officers of a Review Conference;

2. The countries belonging to the Group of East European States, as a gesture of good will and without creating any precedent, cede their right to nominate and fill the post of the President of the Third Review Conference to the Group of Non-Aligned and Other States, on the understanding that a representative of the Group of East European States will preside over meetings of States Parties which might take place as a follow-up between the Third and Fourth Review Conferences;

3. The representative of Argentina, nominated by the Group of Non-Aligned and Other States, will chair the Preparatory Committee of the Third Review Conference and will preside over the Third Review Conference. The main committees of the Third Review Conference will be chaired by the representatives of the following groups:

   (a) Credentials Committee - the representative of the Western Group;

   (b) Committee of the Whole - the representative of the Western Group;

   (c) Drafting Committee - the representative of the Group of East European States."

4. In accordance with the understanding reached among delegations, as reflected in paragraph 3 above, the Preparatory Committee, at its 2nd meeting on 12 April 1991, elected by acclamation Ambassador Roberto García Moritán (Argentina) as Chairman of the Committee.

5. Also at its 2nd meeting, the Committee unanimously elected Ambassador Juraj Králik (Czech and Slovak Federal Republic) and Ambassador Hendrik Wagenmakers (Netherlands) as Vice-Chairmen of the Committee. The Committee authorized the Bureau to handle technical and other matters in the period before the Review Conference was convened.

6. At the same meeting, Yugoslavia, on behalf of the Group of Non-Aligned and Other States, made the following statement:

"The Group of Non-Aligned and Other States noted with satisfaction that intensive consultations regarding the election of the officers for the Preparatory Committee and the Third Review Conference of the Parties to the Convention on the Prohibition of the Development, Production and Stockpiling of Bacteriological (Biological) and Toxin Weapons and on their Destruction had resulted in the emergence of conclusions and understandings that had permitted the Preparatory Committee to finally begin its substantive work."
"The understanding of the Group of Non-Aligned and Other States is that the contents of the above conclusions and understandings were arrived at in the context of the distribution of the posts in the previous Review Conferences of the Parties to the Biological Weapons Convention and their Preparatory Committees and that they do not prejudge future decisions regarding the composition of and groupings in different multilateral disarmament fora."

7. At the same meeting, Hungary, on behalf of the countries belonging to the Group of East European States, made the following statement:

"The countries belonging to the Group of East European States have always held the view that procedural issues must be resolved speedily and should not prevent the conduct of substantive work. It was this spirit that guided us in considering the request of the Group of Non-Aligned and Other States to take the post of President of the Third Review Conference of the Biological Weapons Convention.

"This is why we entered the informal consultations on how to accommodate the request of the Group of Non-Aligned and Other States and, of course, the concerns of the countries belonging to the Group of East European States. This has not been an easy exercise and we must certainly praise all those taking part in the consultations for the high degree of flexibility they displayed during these consultations.

"We were pleased to hear the words of reaffirmation of the agreements by the Group of Non-Aligned and Other States reflected in their statement which does not prejudge future decisions regarding the composition of and groupings in different disarmament fora."

8. At the same meeting, the United Kingdom, on behalf of the Group of Western States, made the following statement:

"The Western Group attaches great importance to the principle of rotation between the Group of East European States, the Group of Non-Aligned and Other States and the Western Group. As the statement read by the Representative of the Secretary-General says, under the accepted principle of rotation, each group of States has equal right to fill the post of President and other offices of a review conference. This is a long-accepted principle which continues to be central to the election of officers.

"One further point of detail. The agreement with regard to the meetings of the States Parties which might take place between the Third and Fourth Review Conferences, referred to in paragraph 2 of the understanding reached, is, of course, without prejudice to any decision on possible follow-up meetings by the Review Conference at the appropriate time."
9. The following 68 States Parties to the Convention participated in the session of the Preparatory Committee: Argentina, Australia, Austria, Bangladesh, Belgium, Bhutan, Bolivia, Brazil, Bulgaria, Byelorussian Soviet Socialist Republic, Canada, Chile, China, Colombia, Cuba, Czech and Slovak Federal Republic, Democratic People's Republic of Korea, Denmark, Ethiopia, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Honduras, Hungary, India, Ireland, Italy, Japan, Jordan, Kenya, Lebanon, Libyan Arab Jamahiriya, Malta, Mexico, Mongolia, Netherlands, New Zealand, Nigeria, Norway, Pakistan, Panama, Peru, Philippines, Poland, Portugal, Qatar, Republic of Korea, Romania, Senegal, Singapore, Spain, Sri Lanka, Sweden, Switzerland, Thailand, Togo, Tunisia, Turkey, Ukrainian Soviet Socialist Republic, Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, United States of America, Venezuela, Viet Nam, Yemen, Yugoslavia and Zimbabwe.

Mr. Sammy Kum Bueno, Senior Political Affairs Officer, Department for Disarmament Affairs, served as Secretary of the Committee.

However, in the case of a tie between a greater number of unsuccessful candidates a special ballot shall be held for the purpose of reducing the number of candidates to the required number; if a tie again results among more than the required number of candidates, the President shall reduce their number to that required by drawing lots.

3. If such a restricted ballot (not counting a special ballot held under the conditions specified in the last sentence of paragraph 2) is inconclusive, the President shall decide among the candidates by drawing lots.
